

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5 A personal identification check is provided that includes a photograph of the owner of the check imprinted on the face of the check for providing visual identification of the owner of the check, and adjacent the photograph are further personal identification substantiation indicia such as the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the check.

10